

ICMUS DIRECTOR:

Caroline Tucker is the founder of CAT Accounts Limited, a full service accounts consultancy and bookkeeping firm that keeps SME's and charities operating with integrity, accountability and compliance. As a professional, she is best described as one who can determine the long-term view with an eye for detail, and whilst remaining impartial, will offer accurate and substantial insight into a client's account operations due to her extensive knowledge of accounting, bookkeeping and business practices. She often works closely with Directors at the Board level troubleshooting sensitive financial management issues.

Her clients include:

- a number of UK/European companies with a turnover of more than £10m
- film, media, & music companies with international clients including successful UK based film makers, record producers and artists.
- a number of start-ups including innovative creative individuals with unique financial history
- established high street retailers
- a multinational music charity with substantial touring and releases
- local churches and worship teams

Before devoting her work fulltime to CAT Accounts, Caroline served in the Royalty department at Rank Film Distribution and over the years has worked as an accounts director/operations manager for a number of successful UK based businesses including Del Monte, Ellis and Thompson Eyewear and Sable Interiors.

Caroline is a full member of the Institute of Certified Bookkeepers and holds an BTec in Business Studies, an ICB Certification and Diploma in Payroll, a RSA Accounting Distinction and a first Class Pitman's Level I Diploma in Bookkeeping. She specialises in Sage, IRIS Accounts, Absolute Accounting, Moneysoft Payroll and Quickbooks.

In addition to being a successful businesswoman, Caroline is also an accomplished musician. She plays piano, guitar and has helped with arrangements for choirs and small ensemble. She has organized and directed a number of concerts for her local churches and community over the years performing as a vocal director and accompanying musician.
